

M-bot put a one shiny rock in M-bot's compartment.

R-bot put a one shiny rock in R-bot's compartment.

They were happy for the rest of the day.

In the dream, M-bot's hole went very, very far.

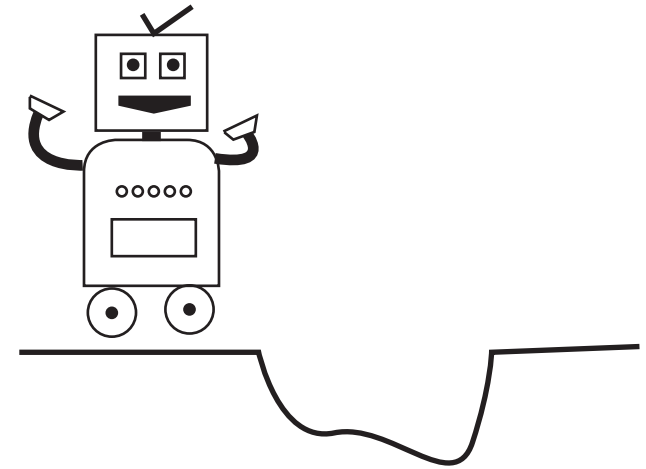

At the very end of the hole, there were two shiny rocks.

M-bot was very excited to discover the rocks.

M-bot put the shiny rocks in his compartment.

M-bot Digs a Hole

M-bot went into the back yard.

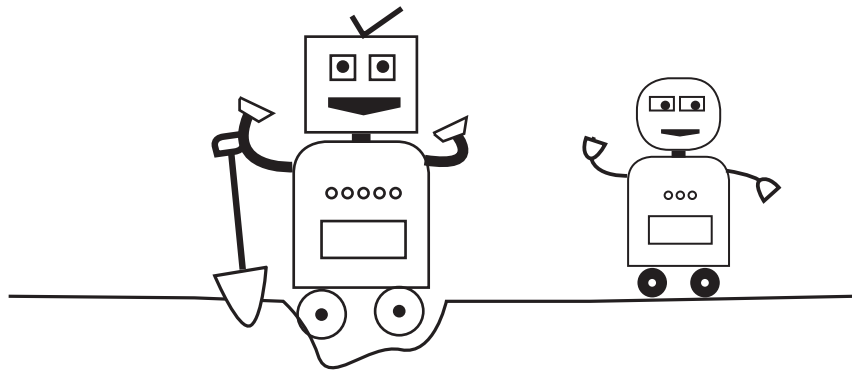

He took his shovel.

Along came R-bot.

"What are you doing?" asked R-bot.

"I am going to dig a hole," answered M-bot.

M-bot started to dig.
 When M-bot stepped in the hole, his feet were all the way in the hole.

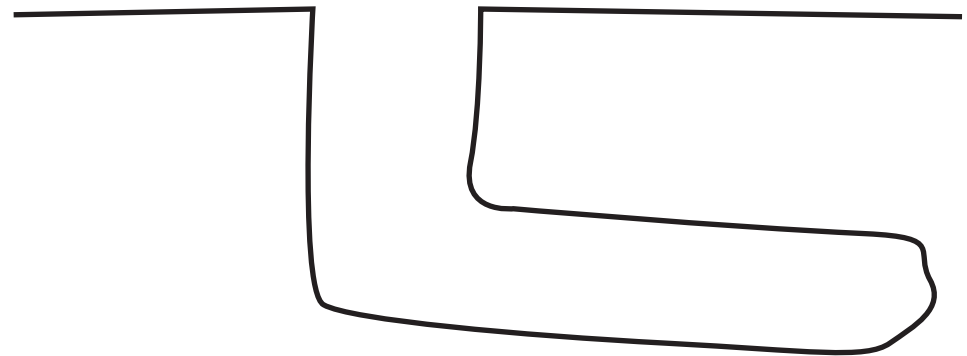

When M-bot woke up, he saw that R-bot was sitting beside him. He told R-bot all about his dream.

R-bot said, "Let's look in your hole. Maybe PART of the dream will come true!"

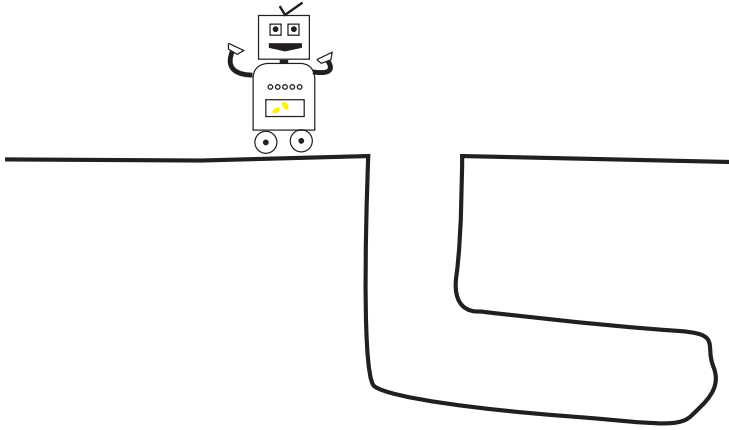

So M-bot and R-bot looked down into M-bot's tiny hole. SURPRISE! There were two shiny rocks in the hole, just like the rocks in M-bot's dream.

While M-bot was sleeping, he had a dream. In the dream, M-bot dug a very very deep hole. It went down, down, down. Then it went sideways.

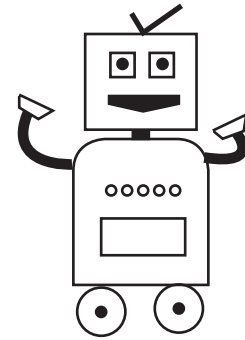

Then M-bot climbed out of the hole.

One day, M-bot decided to dig a hole.

It would be a BIG hole.

It would be a DEEP hole.

So M-bot looked for a shovel.

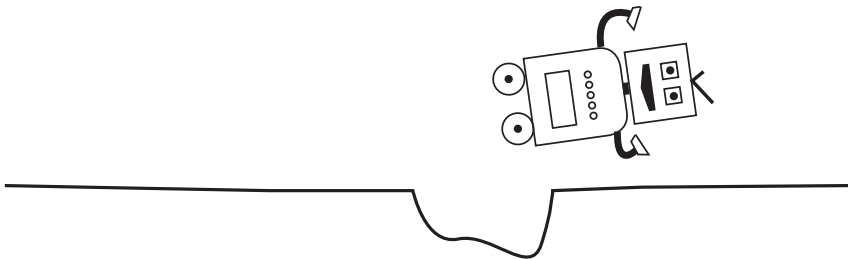

M-bot kept on digging.

He was getting very dirty.

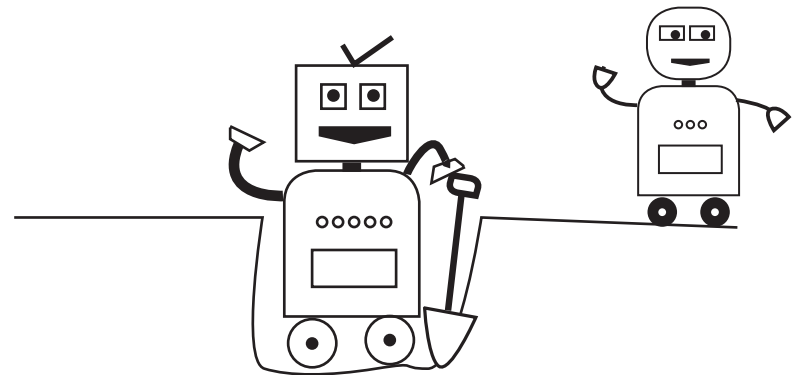

He was getting very tired.

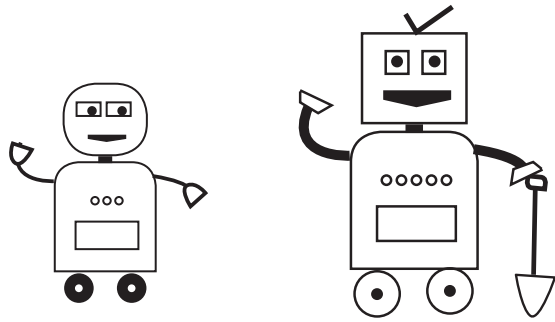

He climbed out of the hole to rest. M-bot was so tired that he fell asleep.

M-bot kept digging.

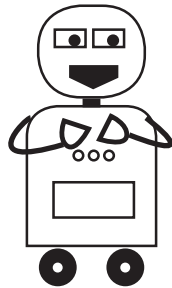

Now, when M-bot stepped into the hole, it came up to his buttons.

R-bot clapped and said,
“M-bot, your hole is getting very deep!”

M-bot answered, “But it is not deep enough!”
